

How to Provide Comfortable Care to: _____

Please read this informational sheet to learn more about interacting with _____ and making him/her feel more at ease during your time together.

I have _____. In my particular case this means _____

_____.

It makes me feel _____ to visit _____.

There are some things that my body does or is sensitive to that I don't have control over and I would like for you to be aware of:

*List 4-6 major points you would like the support team professional to keep foremost in his/her mind when working with your child.

1.

2.

3.

4.

During my visits I worry most about _____

You can help me to relax by _____

Some things I find comforting are when _____

During my visits it's very important to me to _____
